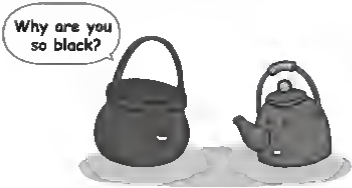
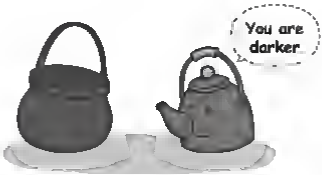
Like a Pot

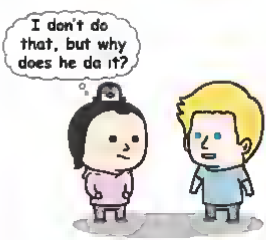
There is a proverb in Korean:

A dog with poo stain tells off a dog with bran piece stuck in the hair.



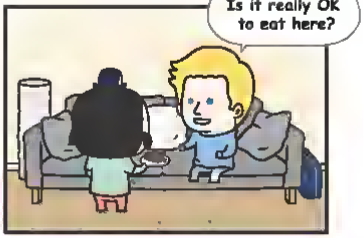
It's the same meaning as the proverb:
A pot calls the kettle black.



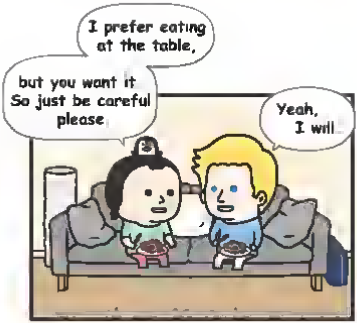


Never say never,
so it's better to be careful
in any situation.

But sometimes,
I feel like to be the pot.

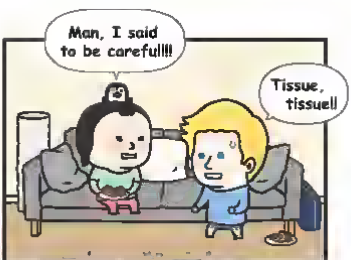


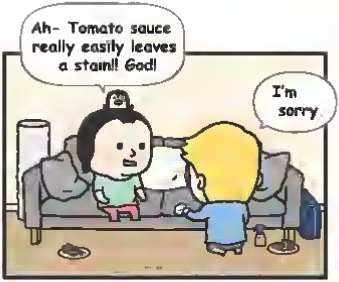
One day, we were having dinner on the sofa watching TV.



I asked him to be careful

But he dropped a spaghetti noodle on the sofa.



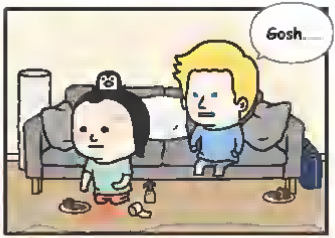


Ah- Tomato sauce really easily leaves a stain!! God!
I'm sorry

You shouldn't do that Give it to me

I made an even bigger mess.

I was so surprised and tried to study his face if he was mad.



He talked ta me with his glaring eyes.

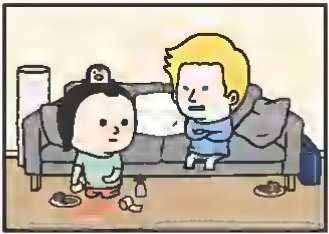
...is friends with a dog with a urine stain.



I hope their friendship would be forever.

And yours and ours too.
